

THE BIG SOUTH AMERICAN ROUNDTrip

21 days/20 nights

Tourism in South America has too much to offer: Macchu Pichu, Lake Titicaca, Uyuni Salt flats, Atacama Desert, Amazon, Christ Redemeeer just to name a few of them. And it is of course almost impossible to see everything in a short time. Twenty one days as we are suggesting here would be enough to have a general view of the grandeur of the southern subcontinent of the Americas. Inhabited by the Incas and other great cultures who developed agriculture, architecture, astronomy, and medicine among others for thousands of years, its cultural and ethnic outlook has interacted with European conquerors since the XVth century and melding its culture with immigrants from Africa and Asia. Many cities have a huge influence of European architectural styles, music has also big influence from African slaves who were brought to South America to work first on the mines and later moved to the tropical regions and finally, the Asian influence impregnated the gastronomy. You will see all these facts during your big south American roundtrip. After you arrive in Lima, Peru, you will feel like being on other world, a mixture of wealth and poverty, a mixture of religions. The most cultural impact on the trip will be the Inca Citadel of Machu Picchu in Peru, one of the new seven wonders of the world. Your encounter with nature will be demanding in this trip, with Lake Titicaca, Uyuni Salt Flats, Atacama Desert and Iguazu, the biggest Waterfall in the World.

Finally, our offer gets you to many capital cities in South America, with its culture, its own way of life, music, and gastronomy. Come with us to South America to live your adventure!
