La Fortuna is one of the most complete destinations and with a variety of activities to offer; from a lot of adrenalin such as canopy, rafting, safari, horseback riding, rappel, bicycle tours; going through nature walks, caverns, waterfalls, suspension bridges, among others. Accommodation in La Fortuna at the Arenal Springs Resort & Spa* (B)

DAY 6 LA FORTUNA/ARENAL VOLCANO - MONTEVERDE

Breakfast at the hotel. Today you will leave La Fortuna for another of Costa Rica's most beautiful and richly diverse places: Monteverde. This area is definitely a destination for nature lovers, where its main attraction is the Monteverde Cloud Forest Biological Reserve, which is world-renowned for its great biodiversity, its contribution to conservation and scientific research. The mystical forest is covered by a haze produced by the high humidity trapped in the infinite branches of the tallest trees, and is home to the elusive quetzal and the vibrant bellbird. Accommodation in Monteverde at El Establo Mountain Hotel* (B)

DAY 7 MONTEVERDE

Breakfast at the hotel. We recommend a leisurely stroll through the cloud forest and observe some of the 400 species of birds native to this region, or simply relax while you forget about all the stressful problems of everyday life. Boredom is certainly a word that will disappear from your lexicon thanks to the fabulous variety of activities available in Monteverde. Observe the forest from a bird's eye view by taking a leisurely walk across the hanging bridges or a quick glide between canopy and canopy by canopy. If you want something much more leisurely and effortless, you can take the coffee, chocolate and sugar cane tour, so you can learn about the processes prior to the final product you find on your table.

Overnight at El Establo Mountain Hotel* (B)

DAY 8 MONTEVERDE – QUEPOS/MANUEL ANTONIO

Breakfast at the hotel. Back on the road, you will drive to the Panamerican Highway and continue south through Puntarenas to Jacó. Here you can stop to visit the Carara National Park, located 5 km after the long bridge over the Tárcoles River (entrance fee approx. USD 10 per person). This park is a clear example of a mixed forest: a biome that is moderately temperate and humid at the same time. Orchids in particular do very well here; you can admire some of them in their natural habitat. The park's main attraction, however, is the great scarlet macaw. Afterwards, continue along the coast to Quepos/Manuel Antonio - beach time! Further south, along the Central Pacific coast, you will find one of the best beaches in Costa Rica, where you will have the opportunity to take a refreshing swim and visit the Manuel Antonio National Park.

Overnight at the Parador Nature Resort & Spa * (B)

DAY 9 QUEPOS/MANUEL ANTONIO

Breakfast at the hotel. Free time to explore one of the most popular and spectacular tourist destinations in the country. This area offers a wide variety of activities such as mangrove boat rides, swimming, hiking in Manuel Antonio National Park (closed on Tuesdays), surfing, snorkelling, canopy, catamaran at sunset or just relax while watching the most spectacular sunset taking place before your very eyes. Do you prefer risky sports? Do you love marine life? Whatever your choice, there is an excursion to suit your preferences. Overnight at the Parador Nature Resort & Spa * (B)

DAY 10 QUEPOS/MANUEL ANTONIO – SAN JOSE INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Breakfast Today, you will bid farewell to paradise and drive to Juan Santamaría International Airport in San Jose for your flight back home. We recommend estimating around 4 hours for this journey. Drop off the rental car at the airport office of the rental company, who will provide a transfer to the international airport. We hope that your journey through this small country has been a gateway to contact with nature and a relaxing experience. If you have booked an extension package, you will start this new adventure right after breakfast. Have a good trip back home! End of our services. (B)
