After visiting the majestic volcano, an almost mandatory highlight, you will set off for Santa Teresa, a magnificent coastline of popular and well known white sandy beaches, ideal for surfing or relaxing on a beautiful beach. The lively town offers numerous services that will make your stay particularly pleasant and interesting.

Breakfast at the hotel. In the morning, you can visit the stunning La Fortuna Waterfall on your own (not included). In a beautiful environment surrounded by abundant vegetation and a great variety of flora and fauna, it emerges from the dense green jungle before falling down about 65 meters into a natural pool. This magnificent waterfall is produced by the Fortuna River and its tributaries, located in the mountains of the area. The trail will take you about 600 meters down to the attractive natural pool, where you can have a swim in its refreshing waters. This activity is recommended for people in good physical condition, as to reach the base of the waterfall you have to descend 500 steps and then ascend the same way. If you prefer, you can also simply relax at your hotel and enjoy the time in the nice installations. In the afternoon, your local guide will pick you up to start a walk over the old lava flows on the slopes of the volcano. If you are lucky, you will see a varied fauna that is hidden in the beautiful and picturesque flora.
