

THE PATAGONIAN ADVENTURE IN CHILE AND ARGENTINA

13 days / 12 nights

Patagonia, a breathtaking region shared by Chile and Argentina, is a land of towering Andes Mountains, pristine lakes, fjords, glaciers, and vast steppe landscapes. Known for its unspoiled beauty, it's a must-visit destination for nature lovers and adventurers alike.

Your journey begins in Santiago de Chile, with guided tours of the city and nearby wine regions. From there, fly to Punta Arenas, the gateway to Chilean Patagonia, and delve into the wonders of Torres del Paine National Park, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve. Explore its iconic peaks, vibrant lagoons, and cascading waterfalls before crossing into Argentina.

In Argentina, visit El Chaltén and El Calafate, renowned for their proximity to Mount Fitz Roy and the spectacular Perito Moreno Glacier. Your adventure concludes in Buenos Aires, the vibrant capital of tango and culture, where you'll experience the rhythm of the city and the charm of the Argentine pampas.

The adventure includes:

- Santiago and Beyond: City tours, wine tastings, and a visit to Pablo Neruda's historic home in Valparaíso.
 - Torres del Paine National Park: Hikes to French Valley, Mirador del Toro, and encounters with icebergs at Playa Grey.
 - El Chaltén: Trek to Diablo River and Cagliero Glacier, with a boat ride on Lago del Desierto.
 - Perito Moreno Glacier: A day exploring one of Patagonia's most iconic natural wonders.
 - Buenos Aires and Pampas: Guided city tours, a tango dinner show, and an unforgettable "Fiesta Gaucha" at Estancia Santa Susana.

From enchanting glaciers to dynamic cities, this adventure blends nature, culture, and unforgettable experiences.
