

DAY OF THE DEATH EXPERIENCE IN MEXICO

10 days/09 nights

Experience one of Mexico's most iconic and heartfelt traditions: Día de Muertos. Far from being a Latin version of Halloween, this ancient festivity dates back thousands of years to the Aztecs, Toltecs, and Mayans, honoring the lives of loved ones who have passed. Celebrate with vibrant altars, joyful parades, and visits to historic sites that connect the past and present.

Highlights of Your Journey

- Mexico City: Explore the city's rich history, including the National Museum of Anthropology, the Zócalo, and the Basilica of Guadalupe. Experience the lively Catrina Parade and capture your own Catrina-themed photo shoot.
- Teotihuacan & Puebla: Marvel at ancient pyramids and the colonial charm of Puebla, renowned for its magical towns and intricate traditions.
- Oaxaca: Immerse yourself in vibrant festivities, from cemetery altar displays in Santa Cruz Xoxocotlán to the spectacular Comparsa parade in Etla. Visit the ancient Monte Albán and the legendary Tree of Tule.
- Xochimilco & La Llorona: Cruise Xochimilco's canals on a traditional trajinera, followed by a breathtaking performance of La Llorona, blending contemporary music with pre-Hispanic traditions.
