Later come back to Venice a go to your hotel or enjoy the evening walking through the small streets and visit a local restaurant for pizza or pasta. Accommodation. (B)

DAY 5 (Tuesday) VENICE – PADOVA – FERRARA - FLORENCE

Departure to the Tuscan capital, stopping at Pádova where you will visit the Basilica of San Antonio de Padua, with the Tomb of the Saint. Free time and then depart for Ferrara, medieval city that also lived a great flowering at the time of the Renaissance, and whose urban layout makes it "the oldest modern city in the world." Free time to have lunch, (we recommend asking for Tortellini) and take a walk around the city. Departure to Florence, cradle of great artists such as Dante, Petrarca and Donatello. Upon arrival free time and accommodation. (B)

DAY 6 (Wednesday) FLORENCE

Panoramic tour of the historic center with the exterior of the Cathedral complex: Giotto's Tower, the Baptistery with the famous Gate to Paradise and the Duomo, with Brunelleschi's spectacular dome. We will continue towards La Plaza de la Signoria, which was the political heart of the Florence of the Medici. We will enjoy the most suggestive streets and squares, as well as the Plaza de la República and the Ponte Vecchio. In the afternoon drive to Pisa (83km) to visit its Lean Tower and the Baptistery. Take your time to enjoy it and take amazing pictures. On the way back, you can enjoy driving around the Tuscany and visiting towns like Lucca, Montecatini Terme and/or Pistoia. Back to Florence on time for dinner. We recommend to go to the Piazza della Signoria in front of the Palazzo Vecchio where you will find very good Trattorias for a tasty Italian dinner. You can see there a copy of the statue of David. Back to the hotel. Overnight. (B)

DAY 7 (Thursday) FLORENCE – PERUGIA – ASSISI - ROME

Departure to Perugia and visit the center with the incredible Duomo. Free time to explore some of its streets carved into the rock or we can enjoy one of its typical chocolates. Then we leave to get to Assisi and know the Basilica of San Francisco and the charm of the town. Departure to Rome. Accommodation. (B)

DAY 8 (Friday) ROME

In the morning we made a panoramic view of the city that includes as many points of interest as the Republic Square, the Cathedral of Rome, the Archaeological Rome with the Termas de Caracalla, the Circus Maximus, the Colosseum and the Forums. We will also pass through Piazza Venezia, the neuralgic center of the city, the S. Angelo Castle and the exterior of the Plaza and Basilica of San Pedro (depending on religious ceremonies). Then, you will have enough time to visit on your own the interiors of the Vatican Museums, Sistine Chapel and St. Peter's Basilica. In the afternoon, you will discover the magical Colosseum. Even with the explanation of the guide the traveler will not believe the architectural ingenuity of this monument. Accommodation. (B)

DAY 9 (Saturday) ROME – NAPLES – POMPEII - ROME

When we arrive in Naples, we enter the area of Mergellina, we travel by bus the promenade to Castel del Ovo and the borough Santa Lucia.
